The German Republicans Will Hold a Great Meeting

AT WESTWOOD'S HALL, SOUTH SIDE.

Those Who Will Preside at What Promises to be One of the Greatest Meetings of the Campaign—More of Howard's Demagoguery Exploited at the North End Last Night—Republican Meetings This Week.

To-night the German Republicans, of Wheeling, will hold a meeting at Westwood's hall, corner Jacob and Thirty-eighth streets, South Side, which promises to be perhaps the most notable political gathering of a very notable campaign. Unlike the German Democracy, of Wheeling, their Republican brethren are not compelled to send away off to New York and import speakers. They have speakers right here that are not without repute at home. The speakers of the evening are Dr. G. A. Aschmann and Dr. C. F. Ulrich, both of whom are well known in the community as fluent and aggressive talkers. Both gentlemen will address the meeting in German and Mr. T. J. Parsons, of Mountsville, will follow in a speech in English, so that both German and English speaking citizens will find it worth their while to attend the demonstration which, by the way, promises to eclipse incomparably the recent Democratic German meetings held under the auspices of the German American Democratic Union.

The following is the list of vice-presidents who will occupy seats on the platform:

Herman Broemson, Chairman.
Joseph Seybold, J. W. Schultze,
Christian Reitz, Henry Schulze,
Louis Nolte, Jr., Hugo Loos,
Philip Rasmick, C. Kahlert,
Bauer Schultze, C. Bremer,
Rev. William Braun, John Kohn,
H. Wochert, John Feiler,
F. Becker, George Carl,
Charles Kline, Louis Kline,
Fred Beckendorf, Jacob Kline,
Jacob Zulauf, William Kline,
William Bartels, L. Kalkreuth,
Jacob Snyder, C. Deitz,
Aug. Carl, William Meyer,
Aug. Koch, E. Kuntz,
L. A. Nolte, C. F. Ebeling,
George Bowman, Otto Kahlert,
L. Seabright, Jr., Otto Kahlert,
L. Miller, A. Knoke, Jr.,
C. Seidler, D. Diehl,
Aug. Fischer, F. Kuntz,
L. Tappe, C. F. Ebeling,
H. Tappe, Jacob Botz,
Jacob Botz, Gustave Medick,
F. Genting, H. Custer,
William Hartman, George Steingraber,
F. Opperman, Charles Groppe,
William Siebrecht, E. F. Behrens,
C. Schultze, H. Marchner,
Aug. Polack, C. Ullmerich,
C. Schultze, William Knoke,
H. W. Schrabbe, C. Grabe,
L. Strautman, C. Schwabe,
C. Zimmer, A. J. Schultze,
Adolph Fritz, M. Hum,
M. Roth.

The Eighth warders will come up town in force this evening with red fire and enthusiasm galore for the purpose of escorting the speakers to Westwood hall. It will be surprising, indeed, should they not make twice as good a showing as the German Democrats. The truth is the South Siders are determined to make this one of the best meetings of the campaign, and that they will succeed in their hopes is accounted almost a certainty. The arrangements for the meeting have been in the hands of an able committee, headed by Mr. Adolph Fritz, with William Schockey, Frank Bowers, Conrad Bremer, H. W. Schrabbe, George Carl and Louis Ambrecht as associates.

HOWARD'S SECOND EFFORT.

He and Several Others Talk in the North End Rink.

The audience which gathered in the North End rink last night was one which deserved better entertainment than it received. It was a large crowd, willing to be enthusiastic when there was the slightest excuse. Wood Daily, of Keyser, was escorted from the Hotel Windsor to the rink by Meister's band and twenty members of the Young Men's Democratic club. Tom Kelly called the meeting to order, and a colored sextette arose and sang a song, running thus:

We are the boys in gray;
We have something to say;
We never lost a battle;
But now the war is over,
We're just like pigs in clover,
For Howard is the man!

This provoked wild enthusiasm, and as an encore the boys sang a selection which was certainly peculiar for such an occasion—"Our Little Darling's Grave."

Then Alf Caldwell, having at his earnest request been allowed twenty minutes to "go for" Hon. N. E. Whitaker, came out, and disappointed everybody by simply repeating his former alleged quotations from Mr. Whitaker's record, which have been already forcibly and conclusively answered by Mr. Whitaker himself and by others for him. His main point was that he had voted against teaching German in the schools of Martinsburg. This brought from somebody in the audience the inquiry, "What did he do for the Irish?" and after the laughter subsided Mr. Caldwell said: "He knew the Irish would take care of themselves." Then there was more laughter. He repeated the story about the electric light plant, which was so conclusively answered by President J. H. Hobbs of the Wheeling Electrical Company, in yesterday's papers, and then seeing that the audience was getting restive, he introduced Hon. C. Wood Daily, of Keyser, who he said was the possessor of a silver tongue that would charm the angels out of paradise.

Mr. Daily only succeeded in an hour's talk in "charming" some people out of the hall. He did not advance any arguments, and did not make half as brilliant a speech as he often has before in Wheeling. He did not undertake to explain why he is not making speeches for Prof. Wilson, in the district of which he is himself a resident. Perhaps he thought everybody knew why he was so at Wilson. He wound up with an appeal for Howard, who had in the meantime, after waiting fifteen minutes in the ticket office of the rink, appeared upon the stage amid some enthusiasm. Mr. Daily referred to the A. P. A. business, but disclaimed being an Irish Catholic.

When Mr. Howard arose there was some more pounding on benches by Y. M. D. C. canes. He largely repeated his speech in East Wheeling the night before, but he opened by saying that this occasion either disproved the old adage that a prophet is without honor in his own country or showed that he was no prophet. He said the situation until he was nominated was a forlorn hope, but not since. He went on to tell how he had kept up waxes, which protection could not do, and otherwise explain how great a man he is. Then he appealed for votes because he was being opposed because he clung to the faith he learned at his mother's knee. He said the Irish-American the morning after his nomination accused him of "the crime of being a Catholic," and he used these words in a way intended to deceive his hearers into thinking they were quoted from the paper. That was a deliberate and studied attempt to create a false impression. He tried to be eloquent and pathetic on this head, and possibly imposed on some people.

When Howard sat down the crowd made haste "to make its escapement," but there were calls for Col. Arnett, and the doctory colonel arose, and assuring the remaining audience that he would not make a speech, talked on. He pleaded for Howard, on the grounds that the democrats wanted to retain power, that "this new tariff law might be rounded up and made complete," and he declared that when the Wilson bill took the place of the senate bill upon the statute books of the nation, then "we will have the most perfect tariff law that the mind of man can devise."

In closing Colonel Arnett called out Mr. Pollock, candidate for state senator, who made a few remarks, told a story and retired. The audience again strung out towards the door, when somebody on the stage called for "Byrna." Not three men present knew what this meant, but Mr. Byrna, of Dixon county, knew, and he arose and told the people who had not gone that he was proud to be from Braxton, and to pledge her for an increased majority, shaking his pockets the while as if he had the vote right there. Then he told how he had discomfited "Black" Dovenier in a former campaign, and when somebody in the audience laughed he said: "Dovenier will tell you it is true what I am saying." After Mr. Byrna had given a sufficiently flattering account of himself, the colored sextette repeated the "We are the boys in gray" song and the people went away.

THE DANFORD MEETING

At Martin's Ferry Promises to be a Record Breaker.

The Danford-Nichols meeting at the opera house in Martin's Ferry next Monday evening promises to be a rouser. Music will be furnished by the Seldom Seen cornet band, and Judge J. S. Cochran will be chairman.

The vice presidents will be as follows: Fred D. Stricklin, W. T. Garrett, Theo. Keller, H. W. Smith, Walter Cline, Leo Wood, John A. Brown, Daniel Woods, Frank Brown, A. R. Ong, J. W. Vickers, Charles Linder, Jr., Pier Coleman, Alex. Davidson, S. H. Heaton, John Goodhue, John H. Moore, William Griffith, B. F. Brady, William Clark, H. Williams, G. M. Bartholomew, Chas. Hoffman, David Cox, Richard Ryan, Jr., George Tweedy, Newton Faulkner, Rev. Thomas Williams, Joseph Hilton, William W. McWilliams, William H. Moore, M. F. Weems, George W. Pinner, William H. Jones, Peter Danbenmeyer, William Jones, Richard O'Beirne, William Joy, William H. Owens, Thomas Lloyd, Roger Ashford, D. D. Parks, Richard S. Veazey, R. McFarlane, Peter Ferrang, W. E. Thomas, Job Murphy, Thomas Edmunds, Parker Elliott, Sherman Jackson, W. B. Shuttlesworth, James A. Campbell, Joseph Lytle, H. W. Harris, John W. Crooks, Frank Dennis, William O'Neal, G. G. Sedgwick, Dennis Callahan.

The committee for decorating the stage is composed of G. M. Bartholomew, John H. Moore, Joseph Tannehill, Charles Stewart, John A. Brown, G. G. Sedgwick, Walter Cline.

COMING MEETINGS.

Two To-night and a Lively Campaign This Time On.

In addition to the German meeting in the Eighth ward this evening, there will be a meeting at the North End rink, addressed by Messrs. C. B. Hart and N. E. Whitaker, and Mr. Whitaker and Mr. J. E. Hooton will also address a meeting at the Second ward market hall.

Messrs. A. R. Campbell and W. J. W. Cowden will address a meeting at Valley Grove this evening, and the following other meetings are announced:

Friday afternoon, November 2, B. B. Dovenier and N. E. Whitaker, at Potomac, Liberty district.

Friday evening, November 2, A. R. Campbell and W. H. C. Curtis, at school house near Caldwell's run toll gate, Ritchie district.

Friday evening, November 2, T. J. Parsons and S. O. Boyce, at Elm Grove.

Friday evening, November 2, W. H. Hearne and N. E. Whitaker, at brick school house, Ritchie district.

Saturday afternoon, November 3, B. B. Dovenier and N. E. Whitaker, at Adams school house, Ritchie district, at 2 p. m.

Saturday evening, November 3, B. B. Dovenier and W. P. Hubbard, at Opera House.

Monday afternoon, November 5, at 2 p. m., B. B. Dovenier at Triadelphia.

The meeting at the Opera House Saturday evening will of course be the principal one in the city, and it will no doubt be a rouser.

A vote for Capt. B. B. Dovenier for Congress is a vote for better times, and to call a halt on the effort to break down the defenses of American markets. A vote for Mr. Howard is a vote to continue free trade agitation, which means continued uncertainty in the business world, more panics, depression, lower wages for workingmen, and lower prices for farm products.

The Next State Fair.

The board of directors of the West Virginia Exposition and State Fair Association has decided to have the fifteenth annual fair, as usual, the first week in September. It will open September 2 and continue till the 6th. This will be the fifteenth annual fair.

One of the highest duties of American citizenship is to vote. The man who stays away from the polls next Tuesday neglects this sacred obligation.

THE SOCIAL WHIRL.

Several Events That Occurred Last Night.

Last night the Bavarian society gave its first ball of the season at Beethoven hall on Fourteenth street and it is faint praise to say that it was a complete success. A large crowd was in attendance and a most enjoyable time was passed, the principal amusement being the merry dances.

At its hall on the South Side last night the Mozart singing society gave a concert, which was followed by a Hallow E'en ball. A very attractive programme was rendered in the early part of the evening, after which the floor was cleared and dancing indulged in until a late hour.

Last evening at her home on Twelfth street, Miss Isabella Jepson, daughter of Dr. S. L. Jepson, entertained a number of her young friends and schoolmates at a Hallow E'en taffy-pulling. All had as much fun as children of their age alone know how to secure out of such an evening's entertainment.

Last evening quite a number of relatives of Mr. R. W. Faris, of Bellaire, went down from this city and joined with other family connections of that city in a very enjoyable family celebration of Hallow E'en.

This evening the outing committee of the I. O. O. F. will give a ball in the assembly hall in the I. O. O. F. block for the benefit of the picnic fund, which fell somewhat short on the occasion of the last annual outing.

Among those who entertained last night were Miss Bertie Bashar, of the South Side, and Misses Jessie and Lettie Marsh, of South Broadway, Island.

The Island club gave the opening dance of the season last evening at its comfortable rooms, which were beautifully decorated. The Opera House orchestra played.

NOTES ON NAVIGATION.

Stage of Water and Movements of Boats. The River Interests.

The Pacific with empties passed up at 2 p. m., and the John W. Ailes with empties at 4 p. m.

Captain Mort Seybold, says the Pittsburgh Post, left yesterday morning for Wheeling to bring up the Cyclone and her tow of empty barges.

The Liberty is again running in the Clarington trade. She arrived from below yesterday at noon and departed at 4 p. m. with a very fair trip, both in passengers and freight.

The John L. Lowry departed at 10:30 a. m. for Marietta and way landings with a good trip. The C. H. Woods that has been running in the Matamoros trade retired Tuesday night on account of the raising river, consequently there will be no boat to-day for Matamoros.

Yesterday morning at Brownsville the new tow boat of the McKinley Coal Company was launched in the presence of a large crowd of rivermen. The ceremony was followed by a banquet. The new boat was christened the Fallie and is the finest tow boat that leaves the Smoky City.

The steamer Highland Mary, built to run between Pittsburgh and Zanesville, on the Muskingum, recently sold to South American parties, struck on Guyandotte bar, above Huntington, on Tuesday. She will probably be floated on the present rise to-day, and will then proceed down the Ohio and Mississippi. Leaving the latter river she will skirt the Gulf to the Magdalena river in the United States of Columbia.

The stage of water at the public landing last evening was 35 inches and falling. The top notch of the rise was reached Tuesday night. It is expected, however, that the Ohio will again commence to raise, as the rains have been very encouraging. The towboats with empties that have been laid up along the river are now able to get to Pittsburgh. All of the packets, it is expected, will be able to resume this week, with the possible exception of the Cincinnati-Pittsburgh line.

Reports from headwaters last night were as follows:

Morgantown—River 5 feet 6 inches and stationary. Weather cloudy and cold.

Pittsburgh—River 5 feet 2 inches and falling. Weather clear and cold.

Greensboro—River 6 feet 3 inches and stationary. Rainfall .65, and the weather cloudy and cold.

Warren—River 1 foot 1 inch and rising. Weather clear and cold.

Steubenville—River 2 feet 10 inches and falling. Weather clear and cool.

THE largest lines of Seal, Mink, Marten and other Furs ever in the city will be at Stifel & Co.'s opening. See ad.

Bless Paine's Celery Compound.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruff Were Restored by it to Perfect Health.

"There is no doubt that the life of most women at the present day is a complex one," says the Ladies' Home Journal, "and in the large cities the demands made upon time and strength are legion. No wonder so many fall by the way."

Even women of the privileged classes know what fatigue means, and the weariness resulting from overtaxed nerves, that is more intense and more depressing than anything known to tired muscles.

When frequent headaches and neuralgia give warning that the nerve tissues are not being fully repaired after hard work or anxiety, further mischief will be avoided by feeding the brain and nerves with the wonderful nutriment, Paine's Celery Compound.

Nature is a gentle mother and soothes while she strengthens.

Paine's Celery Compound builds up the body according to nature's plan. This grand invigorator and strengthener is able to restore the delicate nerves to robust health by feeding them rapidly and abundantly with the peculiar elements they find it so difficult to extract for themselves from the ordinary food.

A great nerve doctor, famous in two continents, says that any woman whose nervous strength is at all depleted must either take time to rest at any cost or replace the worn-out tissues with Paine's Celery Compound.

A woman should never be too tired to sleep.

Paine's Celery Compound is to-day busy in its mission to homes everywhere in the land, making sunshine, hopeful faces, and ready smiles.
